TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH, ST. AUGUSTINE, FLORIDA

24925-9

Juan Ponce de Leon discovered Florida in 1513, landing at an Indian Village, where St. Augustine now stands. Pedro Menendez landed in 1565 with 2,600 souls and founded St. Augustine, the first permanent white settlement in the United States. Fort Marion was begun 1586, completed in 1756, and was never taken by an enemy.
